Dear Dr. Baker:

A joint meeting of all three panels organized under the National Security Agency Scientific Advisory Board is being planned for 20-21 May 1964.

The first day will be devoted to accomplishing administrative details and familiarizing these panel members not previously acquainted with the Agency with the highlights of our organization and staff. The second day is to be devoted to a detailed presentation and discussion of some of our technical problems and to plans for future panel activities.

You will not be required to attend the meeting on 20 May, but it is sincerely hoped that you will be able to be present for the 21 May meeting. If you will let me know that you plan to attend, and the mode of travel you prefer, I will have the necessary travel orders sent to you.
